					23	HM	The maker accomplished showing us the motion of the Mounties. However, the motion is overpowering the whole image. Especially as the mounties are all looking alike. There is also the fact that they nearly blend into the background as the colours are very close. The sharp Mounties in the middle help contrast the movement.

					24		Exposure and colour handled well. Nice job on the reflection. Good idea to put the horizon at the lower third. Branches in upper right corner do not add to the image.

					23.5				Monochrome works well for this image. The darker background is a good contrast with the structure. Moving to the left a little would show more of the side structure which is interesting. It is not always possible to move but it could allow for a different perspective.

					22.5				Good job on exposure and conversion. Also the timing is great as he is looking right at you. Image only has limited impact as it appears to be a performance. I'm sure the performer would love it though.

					22	HM	Nice job seeing and capturing the reflection. Exposure on top of the wings is a bit hot and detail is being lost. The bright spots in the back ground are distracting. Shooting the swan with it's head up may have produced a more elegant composition.

					23				Good topic tells a story. Nice backlighting. The background is muted. The head is mostly clear. The image could be improved if the maker could have brought the lens through an opening in the fence as the viewer can see the marks of the fence which takes away from the image. It could have possibly be eliminated in post processing.
