

People, Pixels and Passion, Crafting Compelling Portraits

Presenter: Robert Nowell October 13, 2026

Rob Nowell is an award-winning portrait photographer and educator dedicated to capturing the unique character, confidence, and story behind every face. Combining decades of industry experience with a deep mastery of light. Rob's portrait and headshot work focuses on authentic human connection.

Passionate about sharing the craft, Rob has spent over a decade shaping the next generation of visual storytellers as a faculty member at Mohawk College, where he now serves as the Program Coordinator for the Photography – Still and Motion program. Whether working in his St. Catharines studio, shooting on location, or leading a classroom, Rob thrives on breaking down complex lighting and technical concepts into practical, actionable steps for photographers of all levels
